

Jenny Tuck

Over a twenty five year career in management, public relations, sales and marketing, training and development, education, Jenny has developed a wide range of highly effective people skills.

Jenny currently is an associate of Marshman Consulting Group working with the general public, the private sector and the Adelaide Institute of TAFE, specialising in personal leadership, interpersonal community skills, self-directed work teams, and self-empowerment.

Jenny actively devotes her time to and is a Board Member of the Youth Opportunities Association of SA, Mentoring, Fundraising and presenting programmes with groups of disadvantaged young people seeking a chance for entry into the work place.

Her successful career in the business world has led her to focussing exclusively on the production, marketing and presentation of courses, programs and seminars here in South Australia and interstate.

Throughout her career Jenny has successfully held positions such as SA Sales Manager, National Promotions Manager, National Telemarketing Manager, and National Training and Development Manager in two large corporations each with 300-plus employees.

A great deal of Jenny's success is attributed to her skills in the area of self-empowerment. Jenny is a powerful, effective leader and presenter with strategic planning and goal attainment abilities. Her experience of many businesses, and her ability to communicate with people at all levels, makes her a highly adaptable person on any team.

In 1992, the Adelaide Institute of TAFE agreed to trial the Self Motivated Success - Personal Leadership Program written by Peter Marshman with Jenny as the presenter. The results have been exceptional, with both students and staff alike, reporting tremendous shifts in student attitude, focus, enthusiasm, confidence and outcomes. Currently TAFE is also enjoying further benefits with the follow-up program Communication Skills for the Modern Leader with Jenny presenting.

Jenny has been involved in the development and training of Self Motivated Success and communications within businesses, the Adelaide Institute of TAFE and with the general public for a total of some 18 years.

Through extensive study, research of human potential and commitment to her own personal and professional growth, Jenny has gained much valuable insight and successful experience of the subject matter and delivery methods relating to these programmes.
