

Krystyna Ciesiolkiewicz

Dip. T. Secondary, B Ed., Post Grad Educational Counselling, Dip Transpersonal Counselling

During a 29 year career in education, Krystyna has successfully developed many skills and worked highly effectively with a very wide range of students, courses and activities.

25 years Department of Education and Children's Services:

Krystyna's experience ranges from students with learning disabilities, to mainstream high school students, 'Parents as Tutor Programs', 'Leadership Workshops and Training Programs', 'Coping with Change Seminars' (for teachers leaving the department). Krystyna also organised and coordinated major art exhibitions within schools and the Adelaide Festival Centre.

Editor 'High School Yearly' magazine (5 years).

Coordinated Student Representative Council (5 years).

Project Officer (Training and Development Branch), Education Department - 1992.

Instigator and coordinator 'KESAB', Daws Road High School, Winner of 'Most Outstanding Environmental Program - 1989.

Chairperson, 'Jubilee 150' and Bicentenary Celebrations, coordinating all Polish Community Contributions. Mary Potter Hospice - Workshop Presenter.

Private enterprise. Training and Development Manager and Telesales Department Manager, Adelaide/Sydney (2 years).

With this diverse and successful background in creating excellent learning outcomes, Krystyna not only delivers, she does it with cheerful professionalism and dedication.

1997 - Current:

Associate of Marshman Consulting Pty Ltd, with main focus on presentation of Personal Leadership and Communications Skills Programs with TAFE Institutes. 'Self Motivated Success' and 'Communication Skills for the Modern Leader'.

Krystyna is also currently an Associate with the Youth Opportunities Association of SA, devoting much time to interviewing, counselling, training and program development.

Krystyna has recently complete a pilot program for Youth Opportunities and DEET at Salisbury High School with Year 10 and Year 11 STAR students. Results have surpassed expectations.

Student Comments (1998):

'I've learnt how to achieve my goals.'

'I am more confident.'

'Now I know what success is.'

'I wish I'd done this 10 years ago.'

'I am now setting long term goals.'

'I am now a more positive person.'

'Krystyna's teaching methods were extremely effective and clear.'

'Just what I need at the start of a three year course.'

Ian Jackson, Principal Lecturer, Centre for Tourism Studies, Adelaide Institute of TAFE SA:

'Krystyna has produced excellent results.'

Referees:

Maureen Bailey

Manager, Disability Services, Noarlunga
Department of Education, Training and Employment

Peter Marshman, Managing Director

Marshman Consulting Group
42 Fullarton Road
Norwood SA 5067

Sandy McClure, Education Manager

Centre for Tourism Studies
Adelaide Institute of TAFE
120 Currie Street
Adelaide SA 5000

Ian Jackson, Principal Lecturer

Centre for Tourism Studies
Adelaide Institute of TAFE
120 Currie Street
Adelaide SA 5000